PETITIONING THE COURT

- To issue a warrant
 To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

The offender has violated the supervision condition which state The defendant shall refrain from the illegal possession and/or use of drugs and shall submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to ensure compliance. It is further ordered that the defendant shall submit to drug treatment, on an outpatient or inpatient basis, as directed by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall abide by the rules of any program and shall remain in treatment until satisfactorily discharged with the approval of the U.S. Probation Office.

The specifically, the offender submitted urine samples which tested positive for cocaine and heroin on July 15, 2008 and cocaine on August 22, 2008.

The defendant is to be confined to her residence for a period of 7 months commencing at the direction of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall be required to be at this residence at all times except for approved absences for gainful employment, community service, religious services, medical care, educational or training programs and at other such times as may be specifically authorized by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall wear an electronic monitoring device and follow electronic monitoring procedures. The defendant shall permit the probation officer access to the residence at all times and maintain a telephone at the residence without any custom services or portable, cordless equipment. The defendant shall comply with any other specific conditions of home confinement as the probation officer requires. The defendant shall pay the costs of electronic monitoring, specifically $3.18 per day.

Specifically, the offender has violated this special condition in that on or about May 27, 2008 and October 9, 2008, the offenders telephone service was disconnected for non-payment. Additionally, from August 2008 through November 2008, the offender has had repeated home confinement violations on numerous days for intervals of time of approximately 30 minutes each instance.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
